- Provide 60 internship opportunities for PWD
- Cooperate with around 20 organizations, including government, private sectors, educational sectors and non-profit making organizations.
- Establish 1 online working platform
- Establish 1 volunteer team which teaches computer operation
- Establish 5 social networks

2. Brief Description of Programmes

The project recruits PWD who are at school or unemployed, provides various pre-job training and inclusion training sessions to enrich their self-confidence and capability. The project also pairs them up with a youth ambassador, who will have training and voluntary service together. The suitable PWD will be arranged with home-bounded internship opportunities, in order to accumulate working experience.

3. Unique Feature and Areas of Innovation

An online working platform will be set up, so that PWD can work and receive training at home. PWD can hence perform their capability and eliminate society's discrimination. Inclusion training sessions encourage cooperation of PWD and youth, and building equal and long-term relationships.
