

Teens Fraternity (0009-20)

Project Summary

Project “Teens Fraternity” aims at promoting cross-sector collaboration and using a series of cross-culture activities as a platform for engagement of youth-at-risk, community people and elderly in the Eastern District. There are 4 main parts of the project “Teens Fraternity”, including youth counselor training, volunteer training, community services and cross-generation adventure training team. The project is expected to enhance social participation, mutual cooperation and sharing of participants across generation. The project also helps eliminate misunderstanding between the youth-at-risk and the community, thereby strengthening the cohesion and inclusion of the community and the development of social capital.
