

“Building Community’s Power in Ngau Tau Kok” Project (0017-22)
Caritas Community Centre - Ngau Tau Kok

Project Summary

The project aims to bring the residents of Upper and Lower Ngau Tau Kok Estates together and build a mutual support network so that their sense of belonging can be enriched. The experience of social capital development in a community will be shared and passed on. The project includes four parts:

1. Mutual Help Team – Mutual help teams on different aspects such as health caring, knowledge and information sharing, recreation, social inclusion and green life will be formed to empower local residents.
2. Community Care Ambassador – As house captains, the ambassadors will take care of the residents who live in the same building and connect them to the mutual help teams.
3. Residents’ Mutual Help Network and Advisory Committee – The Committee will serve to link up resident networks as a whole and promote cross-sectoral collaboration among various stakeholders in the community so as to enhance cohesiveness.
4. Publication –The experience of social capital development will be shared out by means of booklets.
