

MY Network – Yang Memorial Methodist Social Service

Project Summary

This program focuses on youth who are lack of motivation and at risk, enhancing their connection and commitment towards our society with the attention, collaboration and interaction from parents, schools, business sector and society groups, a cross sectoral support network is established to provide job placement, interests developing and practical skills workshop. The program also includes interactive sharing of skills through "apprenticeship" and "mentorship". This is to build up their self-awareness and confidence. Through the establishment of "Youth Self-help & Mutual-help Net in Community", participants are to bring into play with the energy of "social capital" continually.
