

Family Story Telling - Neighborhood Development Project - Hong Kong Outlying Islands Women's Association

Project Summary

Family Storytelling neighborhood Development Project is a continuous project of Family Storytelling Neighborhood Support Project. The characteristics are building social capital by strengthening the collaboration of corporates, organizations, government departments and families; and also expand service boundary to Discovery Bay from Tung Chung. It uses “Storytelling” as an intervention strategy to attract more families to build up quality parent-child relationship and facilitate the interaction between the families to develop more intangible capital and build cross-class and cross-generation mutual support community network.