

Yau Tong 「TEEN」 Project – Kwun Tong Resident Association

Project Summary

Making use of Art with Youth Power as the intervention strategy, the project aims at building a network crossing strata, generations and sectors to link up new and former residents in Yau Tong to build up and enhance social capital. There are three phases of the project: (1) empower youth strength by art; (2) convert youth as art tutors to enhance social capital; (3) build and sustain a mutual support network with the accumulated social capital by youth power for long term development.