

Source of Love: Mutual Supportive Network – Shatin Emmanuel Church (0041-19)

Project Introduction

The Project aims to build up and establish effective resources for the Shatin Kwong Yuen Estate to increase self-enhancement, personal capital and becoming high-quality community.

Through different training programmes and activities, the project encourages the Community joint together, learn and growth together, finally, aim to establish Caring and Supportive Networks and the values of “ Love one other “within the community as a whole.

Moreover, through those related different activities also to build up communication and co-operation platforms between especially for the youths, women, institutions and those deprived groups, in order to provide mutual support and enhance the capacity and quality of social interaction and increasing social capital.